

CRASH WITH TREE KILLS AUTOIST

Wife and Two Children Hurt When Wheel Hits Truck.

Pleasant Ridge, Oct. 22.—Leo Van Ryzin, 45 years old, 1402 Wyandotte street, Royal Oak, was fatally injured and his wife and two children suffered serious injuries early today when their automobile struck a truck and crashed into a tree at the corner of Woodward avenue and Woodward Heights boulevard.

Van Ryzin, who was driving, attempted to pass the truck, but one wheel of his car grazed the larger vehicle sending his car into a tree. He died while being taken to the Highland Park General hospital.

Mrs. Van Ryzin, 40 years old, suffered two broken ribs, and deep cuts on the forehead and one knee. Robert, 10 years old, was cut and bruised, and his brother, James, 7 years old, suffered internal injuries.

Mrs. Van Ryzin and her two sons are under treatment in the Lilly hospital at Ferndale.
