Robert,

Husband-father-grandfather-great-grandfather

You were the perfect example of what each of those titles should stand for. God took you from us so quickly, but He left us with so many wonderful memories. All the love and support you have shown us throughout the years will remain in our hearts forever. Your family will truly miss you and all the joy you have given us. We love you and can survive knowing that you are at peace in the arms that are embracing you now.
